General GAGE's ANSWER to the Council's ADDRESS.

To the Honourable Meſſrs. Danforth, Hill, Royal, Erving, Boydoin, Bradford, Hubbard, Sparhawk, Gray, Ruſſell, Bradbury, Tyler, White, Pitts, and Dexter. Members of his Majeſty's council of the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay.

GENTLEMEN,

I Return you thanks for the honour you do me in this addreſs and am greatly obliged to you for the good opinion you are pleaſed to conceive of me.

Whatever may have been the particular cauſes of the diſturbances and riots, which have happened in the town of Boſton, thoſe riots and the reſolves which were publiſhed, have induced his Majeſty to order four regiments to this town, to protect his loyal ſubjects in their perſons and properties, and to aſſiſt the civil magiſtrates in the execution of the laws.

The diſcipline and order which will be preſerved among the troops, I truſt will render their bay in no ſhape, diſtreſsful to his Majeſty's dutiful ſubjects in this town; and that the future behaviour of the people will juſtify the beſt conſtruction of their paſt actions, which I flatter myſelf will be ſuch, as to afford me a ſufficient foundation to repreſent to his Majeſty the propriety of withdrawing the moſt part of the troops.

Boſton, October 28, 1768. THOMAS GAGE.

JOURNAL of Tranſactions in BOSTON. Begun in this Paper, of November 7, N°. 1727. and continued in thoſe of December 12th, and 15th.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 31.

IN conſequence of the late practices upon the negroes of this town, we are told that orders have been given by the ſelectmen to the town watch, to take up and ſecure all ſuch negro ſervants as ſhall be abſent from their maſters houſes, at an unſeaſonable time of night.

The following complaint was regularly made this day, viz. To the Worſhipful Richard Dana and John Ruddock, Eſqrs. two of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the county of Suffolk, and of the quorum.

THE ſubſcribers, ſelectmen of the town of Boſton, complain of John Williſon, Eſq; a Captain of his Majeſty's 59th regiment of foot, a detachment whereof is now quartered in the ſaid town of Boſton, under his command, that the ſaid John, with others unknown, on the evening of the 28th day of October current, did, in the ſight and hearing of diverſe perſons, utter many abuſive and threatening expreſſions, of, and againſt the inhabitants of ſaid town, and in a dangerous and conſpirative manner, did entice and endeavour to ſpirit up, by a promiſe of the reward of freedom, certain negro ſlaves in Boſton aforeſaid, the property of ſeveral of the town inhabitants, to cut their maſters throats, aſſerting, that now the ſoldiers are come, the negroes ſhall be free, and the Liberty Boys ſlaves--to the great terror and danger of the peaceable inhabitants of ſaid town, liege ſubjects of his Majeſty, our Lord the King, and the great diſturbance of the peace and ſafety of ſaid town.

Wherefore your complainants, ſolicitous for the peace and welfare of the ſaid town, as well as their own, as individuals, humbly requeſt your Worſhips conſideration of the premiſes, and that proceſs may iſſue againſt the ſaid John, that he may be dealt with herein according to law.

Joſhua Henſhaw, John Rowe,
Joſeph Jackſon, Samuel Pemberton,
John Hancock, Henderſon Inches.

What muſt the good people of England think of our new conſervators of the peace, or rather what would the preſent Miniſtry have thought and done, had the inhabitants of this town ſtood chargeable upon the oaths of creditable witneſſes, with the crime of having ſolicited the ſoldiers now quartered upon us, and as is apprehended contrary to an act of parliament and the bill of rights, to cut their officers throats and deſert the ſervice, with promiſe of reward for ſo doing?

All the troops in town marched into the Common this morning, drumming the dead beat; at 8 o'clock Richard Arnes, a private of the 14th regiment, dreſſed in white, having juſt before had the ſacrament adminiſtered to him by the Rev. Mr. Palmer, chaplain of the regiment, who alſo accompanied him, was purſuant to the ſentence of a general court martial, ſhot for deſertion: The regiment then marched round the corpſe as it lay on the ground, when it was put into the coffin, which was carried by his ſide into the Common, and buried in a grave near where he was ſhot, and the church ſervice read over him. This was the firſt execution of the kind ever ſeen in this town, tho' during the late war, a much larger body of troops had been encamped here: Some of the firſt ladies among us preſented a petition for his pardon the evening before, and we flattered ourſelves (as it was his firſt deſertion, and in a time of peace, and which could not have happened, had he been quartered agreeable to act of parliament on Caſtle-Iſland) it would have met with ſucceſs; but the numerous deſertions from ſo important a ſervice as the troops are now engaged in, it ſeems prevented this act of grace.

November 1. The laſt night a ſoldier paſſed the guards, at the ſouth part of the town, and was haled, but not anſwering, they followed and fired at him ſeveral times, and being impeded in running by the ſea-weed on the Beach, he was taken and brought back to the guards: This man was preſent at the execution in the morning, but nothing is like to prevent deſertion while the troops remain in this place.

An houſholder at the weſt part of the town, hearing the cries of two women in the night, who were rudely treated by ſome ſoldiers, ventured to expoſtulate with them for this behaviour, for which boldneſs he was knocked down with a muſket and much wounded, they went off undiſcovered; another had a thruſt with a bayonet near his eye, and a gentleman of this town informs, that a day or two before the phyſician already mentioned met with his abuſe, he overheard ſeveral officers diſcouraging, when one of them ſaid, if he could meet that Doctor he would do for him.

The troops ſtill occupy the Town-Houſe, and the main guard is fixed in a houſe on the ſouth ſide of the ſame, and two pieces of mounted cannon planted before the door.

In purſuance of a complaint made to Mr. Juſtice Dana, and Ruddock, relative to Capt. Williſon and others, a warrant was iſſued by thoſe juſtices for taking up ſaid Williſon and bringing him before them, which was delivered to Benjamin Cudworth, a deputy-ſheriff of the county, who being oppoſed in the execution of it, applied to the high ſheriff, who, with divers conſtables went to apprehend him; at firſt he alſo met with oppoſition from one of the officers, but the ſaid Williſon ſoon after ſurrendered himſelf to the ſheriff, who brought him before the Juſtices at Faneuil-Hall, which was crowded with people; and after the examination of divers witneſſes upon oath, the complaint was ſo well ſupported, that the juſtices ordered him to become bound with ſufficient ſureties for his appearance at the ſuperior court in March next, to what ſhall then be alledged againſt him, touching the matters complained of, as alſo for his good behaviour in the mean time.

November 2. Two men and a lad coming over the Neck into the town, were haled by one guard and paſſed them: Soon after they were challenged by another, they replied they had juſt anſwered one, but they hoped they were all friends; upon which a ſoldier made a paſs or two with his bayonet at one of them, who parried the bayonet at firſt, but was afterwards badly cut on the head and grievouſly wounded in divers parts of his body. One paſſing the ſouth town watch was challenged but not ſtopped, he drew his ſword and flouriſhed it at the watch, uſing very inſulting language; he was then diſcovered to be an officer a little diſguiſed, another ſoon joined him, full as abuſive, both declared that if they had been challenged in the ſtreet and no orders ſhewn, they would have deprived the watchmen of his life. A country man alſo coming into town, was thought to have approached nearer the guards than he ſhould have done, for which offence he was knocked off his horſe with a muſket. The other evening three officers unknown, being together at the ſouth part of the town, were heard to ſay, by a perſon of credit, "That if the negroes could be made freemen, they would be ſufficient to ſubdue theſe damn'd raſcals." Perhaps theſe doings and others of a like nature, are exhibited as ſpecimens of the lenient and perſuaſive methods which Lord H--ſb--gh inſinuates are to be taken to bring back his Majeſty's miſled ſubjects to a ſenſe of their duty; be this as it may, the ſufferers and the abuſed are ſeeking ſatisfaction in a legal manner.

This night orders were it is ſaid read to the officers to hold the troops in readineſs againſt the morrow, as a large mob was then expected.

November 3. We can now account for the orders of the laſt night. This morning Mr. Ardil Thayer, Marſhal of the Court of Vice-Admiralty for theſe provinces, with a hanger at his ſide, came to the houſe of John Hancock, Eſq; to ſerve him with a precept for 3000l. ſterling, and having arreſted his perſon demanded bail for 3000l. ſterling, Mr. Hancock offered him divers eſtates to the value thereof, which were abſolutely refuſed; he then made him an offer of 3000l. in money, and afterwards of 9000l. which were alſo refuſed; Mr. Thayer alledging that ſuch were his directions. Mr. Hancock however having heard of the orders and expectations of the laſt evening, prudently determined to give bail, as did five other gentlemen arreſted for the ſame ſum, and on the ſame account, from the like prudent motives. Thus the commiſſioners of the cuſtoms, not ſatisfied with the ſeizing and forfeiture of the ſloop Liberty, for a non-entry of a part of her cargo of Madeira Wine, which before the American Revenue acts were duty free, have gone beyond every thing of the kind before heard of in America, in proſecuting the ſuppoſed owner, and each perſon, they imagined concerned in unloading the wines, for the value of the whole cargo, and treble damages.--The public will now impartially judge, whether this conduct does not bear much the ſame complexion which his Majeſty's council expreſſly declared of the ſeizure of ſaid Sloop, namely, to occaſion a tumult, and thereby give the ſame colouring for a neceſſity of quartering the troops contrary to act of parliament in the body of the town, inſtead of the barracks at Caſtle Iſland, that was originally given for their being ordered here.

This day at a General Council, the G----r, as we are told, reminded them of an important article, of lord Hillſborough's letter, viz where he "ſtrongly recommends a reform of the Magiſtrates of the town, ſince they have ſome of them been heretofore deficient in the execution of their truſt, and hopes that ſuch gentlemen will be found to fill up thoſe important places, who will be reſolute to ſupport the law and the conſtitutional authority of parliament," As to the firſt part, the G----r was pleaſed to ſay, that he ſhould not at preſent enter upon it, but as to the latter, he had and ſhould be caſting about in his mind, who were the proper perſons to be appointed; he then was pleaſed to nominate the new appointed Juſtice Murray, as a Juſtice of the Quorum, but the board are to have it under conſideration till the next General Council.--It appears Lord Hillſborough has been greatly abuſed in the accounts ſent him from hence: We know of no magiſtrate who has been deficient in the execution of his truſt, but this we know, that no one of them had the preſence of the G----r to countenance them, nor did the ſheriff, whoſe duty on all ſuch occaſions is to be preſent and active, even make his appearance, but the inhabitants were left to exert themſelves, and finally by their own virtue ſuppreſſed the tumults and reſtored order to the town.--The nomination for the Quorum may ſhew the people how much the C--r deſpiſes the murmurs or ſentiments relating to any part of his conduct.

November 4. The following letter taken from a Gazetteer of Auguſt 26, has been ſhewn in the laſt Thurſday's paper, viz. Whereas it has been publickly reported, that the Earl of Hillſborough has neglected to deliver a petition from the aſſembly of the Maſſachuſetts Bay, to his Majeſty at a time when his lordſhip had not even ſeen the ſaid petition. I think it my duty to inform the public, that ſuch inſinuations are entirely groundleſs. My reaſons for any delay and proceedings therewith, I have duly given the aſſembly in my letters to them of the 12th and 18th of March, and 27th of June.

DENNYS DE BERDT.

By this letter it appears that a young ſecretary has been able to make a fifteen of an old agent: The truth is, that our aſſembly were informed, that when this letter firſt got to hand, the Great were ſtill engaged in electioneering, which prevented its being handed to Lord Hillſborough; but we were ſoon led to underſtand that a petition offered by Mr. De Berdt, could not be preſented to his Majeſty, he being an agent for the houſe only; a block thrown in the way by our good G----r, who had the laſt winter endeavoured that the aſſembly might join the council in choice of an agent, who if not choſen thro' his influence, would yet have been ſubjected to his negative: and be it known, that in all provincial letters and inſtructions to their agent, the concurrence of the ſeveral branches of government has not been thought neceſſary; in which caſe our repreſentatives could never in a regular way, have conveyed to adminiſtration, the pure unadulterated ſentiments and views of their conſtituents, as has been done by them for ſome time paſt; tho' our enemies have falſely aſſerted, that they were only the ſentiments of a faction.

November 5. Laſt evening the guards were withdrawn from the cellar of the manufactory houſe, and Mr. Brown, and the other manufacturers are again permitted to purſue their ſeveral buſineſſes; they have ſtill a right of action for damages againſt the ſheriff and other treſpaſſers; and it may be remarked, that he is the firſt civil officer of the province, who ever applied for the aid of the King's troops, and this before he had taken the previous ſteps which the law required.--This day the Pope and other effigies were carried through the town, as on theſe anniverſaries it is cuſtomary, with great decency and decorum, agreeable to their reſolution of 1765, which has been practiſed ever ſince.

November 6. This being Lord's day, the minds of ſerious people at public worſhip, were greatly diſturbed with drums beating and fifes playing, unheard of before in this land.--What an unhappy influence muſt this have upon the minds of children and others, in eradicating the ſentiments of morality and religion, which a due regard to that day has a natural tendency to cultivate and keep alive.

November 7. John Fenton, Eſq; allied by marriage to the late Surveyor General, has been removed from his place of Deputy Receiver of the new duty, and Nath. Cliffe, Eſq; appointed in his room. The Receiver General reſides in this Town.

A Court of Admiralty this day, when the libels entered againſt John Hancock, Eſq; and others were read, and the court adjourned to the 28th inſtant.

Letters from Jamaica acquaint us, that the General Aſſembly there was diſſolved on the 22d of September laſt, by the Lieut. Governor of that iſland for their not complying with his Majeſty's expreſs command, for payment of the monies iſſued by the treaſury of Great Britain, for the iſland ſubſiſtance of the troops ſtationed there during the diſcontinuance of their aſſembly.--A diſpute may alſo ariſe with as relative to the barracks and billeting of troops here during the diſcontinuance of our General Aſſembly: The G----r as alſo Col. D----ple, declared before the council, that they made no demand for the hiring of barracks, but only for the utenſils, and billeting, they being at liberty to hire barracks on the King's account; this was perhaps to draw the C----l into a vote for providing barracks, utenſils, and billetting which was then repreſented as the utmoſt that would be deſired on account of the troops; but it is now intimated by the G----r, that the charge of barracks muſt be finally diſcharged by the province.----We have alſo advice from South-Carolina, that their new aſſembly was to meet on the 13th inſtant: As it was imagin'd they would not recede from the reſolutions of the Maſſachuſetts Ninety Two, which are highly applauded in that province, a diſſolution of that aſſembly was expected ſoon after.--The Britiſh miniſtry ſeems to have adopted French maxims and cuſtoms with reſpect to their treatment of American parliaments, which muſt not only be well reliſhed by a free people, but be ſoon productive of very ſalutary effects.

November 8. The commiſſioners of the American board of cuſtoms, have this day thought proper to leave Caſtle-William, the ſeat of their choſen reſidence for ſome months paſt, and make their re-entry into this metropolis.--We wiſh we had full evidence that during this receſs, they had not been fully employed in tranſmitting ſuch accounts, and projecting thoſe meaſures, that have had too direct a tendency to enflame and further embroil the mother country and the colonies; and this at a time when a return of mutual affection and confidence is ſo neceſſary for the preſervation and happineſs of both.--A letter makes its appearance in the Court Gazette, exactly in the ſtile of the true Patriot, the writer aſſerts, "That Mr. HOLLOWELL, by his temperate caution, and care not to aggravate any thing in his accounts, has given general ſatisfaction," he condoles us as "fatally miſled by evil-minded men of malicious diſpoſitions, into meaſures which tend to public ruin," and declares "that the nonſenſe of Wilkes and Liberty is now at an end; that no one ever made a queſtion about the propriety and neceſſity of ſhooting forty men among the rioters at Huxham, in 1757. but when ill humours are ſet afloat, (a phraſe borrowed from a Governor's ſpeech) the cleareſt point will be diſputed; that the King's ſervants, ſeem determined to maintain the Supreme Legiſlative Authority of Great-Britain, and if our people flatter themſelves with indulgence in their forwardneſs, they will be deceived; as in ſhort all men of underſtanding, except a few intereſted merchants, who are afraid of their American debts, are calling out for a much greater exertion of authority."

Whether the above is London or Boſton manufacture, the public may judge; be it as it may, it certainly carries the plain mark of the beaſt in its fore-head: the writer, who is probably the one that has been ſoliciting for a thouſand a year out of the American revenue in addition to his preſent ſalary, ſeems to make quite light of the intereſt of the Britiſh merchants; the revenue, is all and in all with him; to ſecure which he calls out for ſtill greater exertions of power, and what cares he, tho' theſe merchants ſhould loſe the ſeven millions due to them from America, in ſo ridiculous a conteſt: But know it is----d, ſo ſoon as the people of Britain ſhall put the whole produce of the American Revenue into one ſcale, and the profits and advantages of their colony trade in the other, they will perceive the former at once to kick the beam:----then, and not till then, may we expect to ſee ſome men, who from ſelfiſh views, have projected and recommended meaſures deſtructive to the commerce of Britain, and the welfare of the colonies, reap the fruits of their deſigns, and thoſe who have generouſly ſo ſerved the in- mark of the nation to their own, the honours and applause they are justly intitled to.

November 9. Yesterday the Superior Court met by adjournment at the court house. In the afternoon a motion was made by J——s O——s, Esq; one of the bar, that the court would adjourn to Faneuil-Hall, not only as the stench occasioned by the troops in the representatives chamber, may prove infectious, but as it was derogatory to the honour of the court to administer justice at the mouths of cannon and the points of bayonets.—This day the troops were removed from that chamber, much to the satisfaction of the people, who have look'd upon their being placed there as a fit by the G——r as an insult upon the whole province.

The Town-House Watch being on the return at 2 o'clock in the morning, heard a great noise and uproar in the streets, they soon found it was made by a number of officers, and presuming to speak to them, tho' with great civilness, they were threatened with being seized and put in irons, and otherways insulted in a gross manner.—Several soldiers, late at night, entered the house of Mr. Justice W——le, and in humble imitation of some of their superiors, were very free with the blacks, to whom they declared a liking, and that their assistance was wanted; the Justice being confined by sickness, was obliged to call in the assistance of some neighbours, who coming armed soon forced those intruders to decamp.—A married woman living in Long Lane, returning home in the night, was seized by the neck and almost strangled, she was then thrown upon the ground, and treated with great indecencies! Another woman at New-Boston was rudely handled. Mr. N——w——l of Needham, passing near the Town Gates, was struck with a musket, and without the least provocation, received another stroke from a drunken guard, which stunned him.—The mention of such abuses as these is by no means intended to insinuate a want of care in the commanding officers, but to shew the great impropriety and grievance of quartering troops in the town, inasmuch as even under the eye of the General, the inhabitants are exposed to such great insults and injuries.

A large Guard-House for the soldiery is erected on the town land, near the Neck, and almost finished, notwithstanding Mr. Pierpoint, who had hired it of the selectmen for about 4 years past, did, by their order, and before witnesses, forbid their erecting the same.——These are times in which no inhabitant knows what ground he stands upon, or can call his own.

A general council this day, at which we hear the G——r proposed his publishing a proclamation relative to the justices of the town, founded on what Lord Hillsborough has written, concerning their conduct in the late times: the council did not approve of this proposal, being aware it would have led some to conclude, that they were not of the mind that said Lord had been imposed upon in the accounts transmitted from hence, respecting the behaviour of these magistrates.

November 10. This day the C——l required the attendance of his Majesty's justices of the peace, at the Council Chamber; they attended accordingly. James Murray, Esq; the first made justice on the reforming plan, being among them; when, to keep up the appearance of their having been negligent in their duty, Lord Hillsborough's letter was read to them; after which they were exhorted by the G——r, to a faithful and diligent discharge of the duties of their office!——We do not hear that it was recommended to them to proceed according to law, with those who have quartered the troops upon us, or against such officers and soldiers as have insulted the public, injured and abused the subject, and thus broken the King's peace.

Several large transports just arrived from Cork, having on board part of the 64th and 65th regiments. The remainder, with the Hussar frigate, were parted with in a storm ten days ago.—It is to be hoped, that the arrival of these troops will lead some officers to conclude, that the aid and countenance of our Negro Gentry may now be dispensed with.

November 11. What an appearance does Boston now make! One of the commercial towns in America, has now several regiments of Soldiers quartered in the midst of it, and even the merchants exchange is picqueted, and made the spot where the main guard is placed and paraded, and their cannon mounted; so that instead of our merchants and trading people transacting their business, we see it filled with red coats, and have our ears dinn'd with the music of the drum and fife.—How would the merchants of London be startled if they should behold their exchange thus metamorphosed.

November 12. Reports that the Small Pox is on board some of the Irish transports; we have certain information that several had that distemper on board, one of them since the left Cork; notwithstanding which, said Ship has been suffered, contrary to the law for preventing the spread of infectious diseases to come up to Town, and numbers of the passengers have been seen walking the streets.——The bringing the Small Pox among us at this time would open a new scene of distress, as we have a great addition to our numbers, and the risque of taking the infection would deter our Coasters and Country people from coming in this winter, with the necessary supplies of provision and fuel.

November 13. The Parade of the guards on week days, grander than in time of war, and nothing left-ened or omitted this sabbath; Commodore Hood, and several Men of War arrived from Halifax.—

JAMES POSTELL.

FRIDAY last arrived here his Majesty's sloop Druid, Capt. John Jackson, and his Majesty's packet-boat Hillsborough, Capt. Leslie Grove, both from Pensacola: By which we have advice of great damage having been done, by a violent storm, at Havana, in October last, wherein 5 Spanish ships of the line were driven ashore, and 3 of them, with several other vessels, entirely lost.—We have also advice, from Pensacola, that the French inhabitants of New-Orleans, having assembled in a body, and confined their Governor, on the 30th of October, determined to expell the Spanish Governor Don Antonio d'Ulloa, and insisted upon his departure at the expiration of three days, when (on the 2d of November) he accordingly embarked, in a large Spanish ship for Havana, leaving a frigate with the mariners, not in a condition to put to sea, and two hostages for payment of debts due to the French. Four of the principal French gentlemen were to embark in 3 or 4 days, to lay their affairs before the court of France, and solicit redress of sundry grievances.

A late letter from New-York advises, that the inhabitants of that city had taken the spirited resolution of instructing their representatives, to take proper notice of the Virginia and Massachusetts circular letters; and also, not to grant any money for the use of the king's troops, without entering it on their journals, as freely given by them, and not in obedience to the act of parliament,—in consequence whereof a dissolution might be expected.

Other late letters from the Northward, say, that the New-England people will patiently bear every hardship that may be laid on them, till May next; in hopes that, by that time, the mother country and colonies, will both be better acquainted with their interests.

Last Thursday Mr. Josh Scott, jun. (Son of John) was married to Miss Sarah Peronneau.

By a letter from North-Carolina, dated the 11th instant, we are informed, that the General Assembly of that province, after passing 21 acts, to which his Excellency the Governor gave his assent, had read and answered the Virginia and Massachusetts circular letters, and agreed upon a petition to his Majesty for redress of grievances; and on the 5th instant were prorogued to the 1st of June next. The following are the titles of the acts, viz.

1. An act for establishing a Town, in Mecklenburg county, by the name of Charlotte Town.
2. An act for dividing Mecklenburg county, by the course of the Catawba river to the Westward, by the name of Tryon County.
3. An act to amend and continue an act, intituled, "An act concerning Vestries."
4. An act for preventing the frequent abuses in taking up and secreting of stray horses in the several counties therein mentioned.
5. An act to continue an act, intituled, "an act for the regulation of the town of Wilmington."
6. An act to encourage the importation of British Copper Half-Pence, and for making them a tender for the payment of small debts.
7. An act for declaring certain lots in the town of Newbern taken up, by the trustees for promoting the public School in said town.
8. An act to relieve such persons as have purchased lands sold by execution, and have not obtained titles for the same.
9. An act for destroying Crows and Squirrels in the several counties therein mentioned.
10. An act for establishing a town on the land of Benjamin Wynns, on Chowan river.
11. An act to amend and explain "an act for establishing an orthodox Clergy."
12. An act to amend an act, intituled, "an act to restrain the keeping of too great a number of horses and mares, and for amending the breed.
13. An act for altering the times of holding the inferior courts of the counties therein mentioned.
14. An act to amend "an act to prevent the killing of Deer."
15. An act to explain "an act for dividing this province into six several districts."
16. An act to establish a Militia in this province.
17. An act to enlarge the time for Sheriffs to settle their accounts with the Justices of the several counties.
18. An act to establish Ware-houses in the towns of Cambleton and Halifax, for the inspection of Hemp and Flax.
19. An act to direct Sheriffs, in levying executions, and the disposal of lands, goods and chattels, &c.
20. An act for building a Goal in Duplin county.
21. An act for making provision for the forces raised to suppress the late insurrection on the Western frontiers; providing for the public claims; and for the more easy collecting the annual taxes of government.

Captain William Lambert, of the Brigt. Swan, from London, on the 10th of last month, in Lat. 30, 37 N. and Lon. 37, W. from London, spoke with a French Ship called L'Heureaux Joseph, of Marseilles, Frasier Rimbaud master, from Cape-Francois for Marseilles, which had lost her rudder, mizen-mast, &c. and was very leaky.

The two following Paragraphs are taken from last Monday's South-Carolina and American General Gazette, published by Mr. Robert Wells, under the Head CHARLES-TON.

"A gentleman of St. David's Parish, in this province, writes as follows to his correspondent in Charlestown: "I expect to see our own manufactures much promoted in this part of the province: I send you some samples of what hath been already done upon this river, and in this parish. The sample of white cotton was made in the proportion of twelve yards to one pound of cotton. Hemp, flax and cotton may be raised here in any quantity; as to wool, we cannot have much of it." The number of samples mentioned above is eleven, which the curious may have an opportunity of viewing, by enquiring of any of the young men at the GREAT Stationary and Book shop."

"Letters from Philadelphia of November 18th say, "We are likely to have some uneasiness here, on account of a searcher appointed for this port, last summer; who, on the merchants refusing to pay him his fees, left us; and, about ten days ago, returned with letters from the commissioners to the collector, and an account of the fees paid to the searcher at New-York. A few days ago a merchant went to clear out a vessel for Madera, and was asked by the collector, if the searcher had indorsed the sufferance; and, being answered in the negative, told the party he could not give him his papers till that was done. The searcher, upon this, was sent for, indorsed the sufferance, and demanded his fees, which the merchant refused, saying, there was no act of parliament which gave him any, and that his salary was his pay for his services. The collector still hesitating to clear out the vessel, the merchant made his case known in the public coffee house, and immediately thirty or forty of the principal merchants, in a body, waited on the collector, and threatened to commence an action against him, if he delayed any longer clearing the vessel out; but with regard to the searcher's fees, they were willing to try his right to them at law, and would give security in case of judgment against them, to pay him his first appointment; the collector not caring to be sued, told the searcher that he must collect his own fees, and if he thought he had a right to, by, recommended to him to get a warrant against any person that should refuse. The searcher disappointed in throwing the burden on the collector's shoulders, is set out for Boston; and we expect the collector will be displaced, and a number of men of war come here; the traders are however, to a man, determined to support what they think their right, and to make it a common cause. Mr. Dickinson on being consulted, has given his opinion clearly in favour of the merchants, and advises them by no means to give up the matter."

RUN AWAY,

ABOUT two months ago, a likely NEGRO FELLOW, named SAM, a little pock-pitted, and ſpeaks very good Engliſh, his feet remarkably ſhort and thick, and his great toes ſtand wide from the others, and turn towards each other very much; is well known in Charles-Town, and in many different parts of the province: He uſed to be ſome times employed about fetching timber and wood, and has a general acquaintance with boat negroes and fiſhermen; has been once in England, and it is not improbable that he may attempt to get off in ſome veſſel, it is therefore hoped, that all maſters of veſſels and of coaſting ſcooners will be cautious that there's no ſtrange Negro harboured or employed without a tickets: He has a wife at Captain Lempriere's, and has been ſeen at different times in Chriſt-Church pariſh, where it is ſuppoſed he is harboured; he has likewiſe been ſeen in Charles-Town. Whoever will take ſaid negro, and deliver him to the warden of the work-houſe, or to me in Charles-Town, ſhall have SIX DOLLARS rewarded, from
